

NEW BEGINNINGS SPRING 2007

This month begins our regular Newsletter again.

This is a mini preview - full creations begin in May to inform and educate and entertain.

This first year in Woodstock has been the Best of Times and the Worst of Times.

Transformation requires challenge and change. This past year has been both.

To relocate to a new state and area requires adaptation and development.

Study and deep inner and outer research has been my journey instead of immediate development and offerings. I surrendered to the process and went with the flow of it instead of fighting the tide, letting go to what was being offered to me allowed great surprises and gifts to appear.

Tough to be in business when the force wants you to Vision Quest.

To anyone who was disappointed in my seeming retreat I am sorry to not have been as available.

I have missed teaching and healing and publishing yet a greater inner and outer process and work has evolved..

To learn and heal is to dance through life discovering and being love, peace and joy!

I am collaborating with healers and dancers and creators of all aspects of life and healing in assisting all to be who they are and ENJOY the process, discovery and manifestation of it all.

THE SECRET teaches us how to manifest with the Law of Attraction.

For me I see it as more than asking for things to appear or things to change for the better. It is about learning through matching energy as mirror and friend, even those that you do not like and continuing to ask to learn and grow as you go along.

You may ask a question and receive and learn how to better receive and direct a more ultimate goal that would not evolve unless you learned the lessons.

We do not gain illumination, compassion and understanding, strength, courage, healing and grace from affirmations.

Real life learning and healing comes from experiencing the resistance and learned lessons and a new way to be through the releasing of what has blocked us.

Answers come from living the questions in order to become the answers.

Wise words from Mr. Kermit the Frog of Sesame Street fame "It isn't easy being green."

In our culture it is not okay to be "green" or "wrong" or "not knowing".

Yet...The best way to know is to open up to what you do not know.

Heading in the direction of the dream allows the journey to unfold. Enjoy the process.

Changing your focus can make it an exciting adventure instead of pain.

Be a virgin, open to the freshness and newness you have not yet opened up to.

See the disappointments as places to refine and learn from in order to redirect.

This New Moon in Aries week challenges us to look at expectations and fine tuning yourself and what you want to create and use what is already here to create anew.

You may not always get what you want - but you get what you need.

LOVE JOY AND BLESSINGS

MEDICAL INTUITIVE READING AND HEALING

We each carry all of our information in the cells of our bodies and energy fields.

✚ Information about you – physical, mental, emotional and spiritual that is perceived on the causes and solutions about what is happening in your body and life and also what is contributing to dis-ease, pain, depression and more and how to heal it.

✚ Correct problems, heal, release blocked energy, balance, align and reclaim and build energy.

✚ Recommendations about diet, supplements, actions, activities and more are often perceived.

✚ Deeper work to heal patterns, issues, attachments, emotions, habits, beliefs, fears and more will be addressed and offered.

✚ All work is co-creative with you learning to participate, feel and experience the truth of what your body, your self communicates so that you can participate and help yourself.

✚ Ultimately you decide and take action as appropriate.

✚ These sessions accomplished in person or by phone.

✚ One session accomplishes a good beginning, the healing begins, one or more aspects are addressed and healed. Occasionally a complete healing is accomplished in one session.

✚ Subsequent sessions allow deeper complete healing .

A team effort with Medical and Allied healing professionals may be a part of your process.
